Of Cotton Dabs

MONTREAL, Jan. 25—Let those children who dislike their spinach consider the case of 16-year-old George Walker, who swallowed an open safety pin. Now she's on a diet of absorbent cotton.

Each meal served to dark-eyed Theresa is garnished with cotton batting. And the patient misses not a morsel. She takes a dab of potatoes and a dab of cotton. In this way, doctors said, she has hoped to envelope the pin more.

If it fails, Theresa will be carried to the operating table.

She has reported resting easy and eating if not enjoying, all her meals.

OTTAWA, Jan. 25—Dominion marketing legislation permitting producers boards to regulate inter-provincial and export trade in meat, grain, flour, sugar and residential building materials is urged by Senator J. The delegation, spokesman for Canadian agriculture, sought broad application of the principle of the British Columbia marketing board, which is now being applied to regulate local or provincial sales.

To complete the program, Gardner said, additional over-inter-provincial and export sales was also necessary. It was submitted.

Huge Armament Program Planned By Ian Mackenzie

Cabinet Approves Proposals to Give Dominion Protection—Money to Be Raised By Special Loans Repayable in 10 Years

By THOMAS WAYLING

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—Canada will launch immediately a major armament program for defence. The cabinet has approved Hon. Ian Mackenzie's plans to give the Dominion protection within the next few years. Instead of throwing the sudden burden on the taxes the money will be raised by special loans repayable over a ten year period.

The Dominion will get protection as fast as the defences can be strengthened and will have ten years to pay off. Mr. Mackenzie will introduce to the commons a resolution to initiate a definite policy of financing Canada's armament needs.

No sum is named. It may mean $300,000,000.

The resolution also asks parliamentary questions for the establishment of a defense planning board to deal with all armaments contracts of $5,000 or over.

The government will make an appeal to the public to help finance the defense issue out of pocket.

The extent of the program has not been known until now, estimates come down Friday night, possibly not even then.

The estimate is that borrowed will be raised in one lump sum will be obtained and when departmental and other funds are added to the ability of Canadian manufacturers to turn out the armaments.

The government only tells part of the story. Behind it is the decision of the government to put Canada's defense on a war basis and efficiency. The resolution will not be up for discussion until the throne speech and the Canadian treaty have been cleared out of the way.

On this resolution, the government will take the opportunity of bringing the Bren gun enquiry attack.

STEVENS TO DEFEND

Hon. H. S. Stevens will deal with that subject, for example, in his speech. Grand Macmillan will attack for the C.C.F.

Last year's $300,000 for defense were only a portion of current revenues as though they were current expenditures. That was the practice in other years. The present capital expenditures were treated as current expenditures.

The Air Force and coast defence were treated in the same way, although the ships go for years and the big guns for decades.

Mr. Mackenzie plans to pay for such ships as other capital expenditures.

As though expenditures are usually repaid by a sinking fund, he will establish sinking funds to repay the capital.

For instance instead of $2,000,000 being paid for two destroyers and coast defence ships, the amount will be paid by the taxpayers of the current year, the amount will be spread over ten years and the treasury only has to dig up $800,000 this year.

The same practice will be followed by the government if a battle plane is put firmly short, sometimes not even a year.

On this, the most expendable munitions such as shells, small arms ammunition and so forth will be paid for by the taxpayers.

The gun which will fire salutes to His Majesty will be paid for on the instalment plan. The amount will be paid for this year.

Memorial Planned

REGINA, Jan. 25.—Plans for raising funds for a memorial to the late General Hugh M. "Daddy" Dow, wartime commander of "The Fighting Fifth," are now being pushed by a special committee of the 5th Battalion Association of Regina.

Safety First

Ottawa has sent out a warning that a consignment of Japanese shaving brushes, infected with anthrax germs, has entered Canada and been distributed to retail centres, some of them in western Canada. It is not known how many brushes were in the consignment, nor with certainty where these have been placed on sale. The germs are deadly, and law officers are trying to locate the infected brushes.

It is perhaps needless to suggest that anyone who finds he needs a new shaving brush had better buy one made elsewhere than in Japan. It may not be inferred that all or any other brushes coming from that country carry the germs; but neither can the contrary be taken for granted, and the safety first rule admits of no chances being taken.

In justice it should be noted that it has not been determined whether the brushes were infected when they left Japan, or picked up the germs in some other country en route. That should be noted, because the speech of Premier Hirunuma might arouse suspicion they had been made specially for export to China but had got into a shipment to Canada by mistake.

When is a Plebiscite?

Calgary is trying out something new in city government. Last November the electors were asked to say by plebiscite whether they wanted the stores to close at 6 o'clock each evening and at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, except during the week before Christmas. They said they did. The majority, while not overwhelming, was substantial—2,187 to 2,187 to be exact.

But the city council Monday evening voted down a resolution to make the required change in the closing bylaw, by a poll of 8 to 4. So the stores are to stay open as at present, and the 13,683 voters who ordered them closed are left to wonder whether the plebiscite was a plebiscite or just another kind of indoor amusement. That, of course, is the point at issue—not whether things would be better or worse all round if the stores were closed.

The outcome will be watched with interest by residents of other cities and towns. Hitherto it has been assumed that when a council referred a controversial question to the electors it did so to avoid having to make a decision on its own, and with intent to carry out instructions. A plebiscite has been supposed to be the nearest approach modern conditions permit to a function of Simon Pure democracy. Doesn't Calgary's council believe in democracy?

More Help for the Cities

The Dominion Government, it now appears, intends to expand its policy of helping municipalities more generously than was intimated in the Speech from the Throne. As municipal councils were offered 2 per cent loans last year for selfliquidating projects, the reference in the Speech seemed to suggest they would this year be offered correspondingly cheap money for other types of undertakings. Hon. Norman Rogers on Monday explained that the preferred assistance is to be even more attractive than that.

The Dominion, he said, will contribute dollars for dollar with the province concerned to meet the entire labor costs of municipal improvements, the municipality to provide the necessary materials and do the supervising. The aim is to "enable municipalities to enlarge their normal programs of civic improvements," which presumably include such items as street and park betterments. The object being to lessen unemployment, the amount of assistance given will hinge upon the number of unemployed in a community. That is, help is to be given in proportion as it is needed.

Edmonton, with 3,000 registered unemployed, is one centre where this offer will be hailed with satisfaction, and can be turned to good account. The city's improvement program has lagged of necessity during the depression years. This will be the opportunity to catch up some of the arrears at relatively small cost to the taxpayers, while the added employment will enable some of these to clear up back taxes and thus strengthen the city's financial position.

The council should lose no time in getting all necessary information from Ottawa and making plans for an early start on the season's program.

The Over-Crowding Menace

If the report of Edmonton's medical officer of health on housing conditions in Edmonton is not startling, that is only because these conditions are so generally known. That over-crowding exists in all sections, has long existed, and is becoming worse, no ordinarily well-informed resident needs to be told. Whoever has tried to find living quarters in the last year or so has personal knowledge of the fact. So have thousands of householders who, under pressure of high taxes and poor times, have subdivided their homes to take in tenants and roomers. Congestion is now the rule, and is tending to become the accepted order of things.

But if the report does not present many new facts, it links these together in a statement that is very impressive, and calls attention officially to the undesirable and dangerous features involved. A couple of years ago house-building was urgent mainly as a means of creating employment. That is no longer the case. The even more serious consideration now is that only a large increase in accommodation can eliminate conditions inimical alike to health and morals. Crowding does not make for either sound bodies or wholesome living, and crowding in Edmonton has reached a point where it constitutes a positive menace to the community.

Assurance has been given that at the coming session the legislature will exempt houses built under the Housing Act from the legal barriers against collection of mortgage claims. The city is to apply again for a charter amendment which would enable it to launch a building scheme under the Act. There is therefore an encouraging prospect that the coming construction season may bring relief from the house famine.

The city council, it is to be supposed, will make all possible preliminary arrangements to get building started as soon as spring opens. That it should do, for the situation is serious to the degree of becoming desperate.

Editorial Notes

Il Duce thinks the governments of countries opposed to Fascist aggression are "too stupid to be dangerous." Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg had the same idea in 1914.

The chairman of the special committee of council requests that any person who knows of any irregularities in the city's financial affairs communicate with him. The request is reasonable. Any one having such information should tell it to the committee, not the neighbors.

About Parliamentary Control

What nonsense is this about Canadian troops not being permitted to leave Canada without the authority of Parliament? A news dispatch says the C.C.F. party is to bring the matter before the Commons.

We are not aware that Canadian troops have ever left Canada without the authority of Parliament. In fact, we did in the Great War. They won't do it in the next war. That's what I think, and won't, because the thing is impossible.

Why impossible? Simply because troops can't leave Canada without money to pay for their transportation. And there is no money in the treasury.

There's an appalling lot of nonsense talked about Parliament and war. We are told from time to time in the most pompous, sonorous language that "Parliament must decide." The reason is that Parliament must decide what to do with the "grass is green."

Of course Parliament must decide. It must vote war supplies. If it doesn't vote supplies, that's the end of it. We either don't go to attack the enemy, or we don't defend ourselves if the enemy attacks. In either case, whether the decision be for war, or against war, for surrender (in case of attack), the decision is Parliament's.

A Highway Inquiry

As a result of a recent inquiry into his highway system, its cost and traffic, a royal commission in Ontario recently made a startling discovery. The cost of the highway system is $100,000,000 a year to be collected from users of motor vehicles in order to pay off the $122,000,000 of debt incurred in constructing the roads.

Other recommendations as they have been summarized are:

That a highway transport board be created to have control over all road transport in Ontario.

That the Province institute a pay-as-you-go policy in financing highway costs and collect an annual fee of $100,000,000 from motor traffic in order to wipe out the highway debt of $122,000,000 over the next 40 years.

That substantial subsidies be paid to urban municipalities for road and street construction and maintenance costs;

That the maximum mileage of $24 for a 60-hour week be set for highway truck and bus drivers and of $20 for city pickup and delivery drivers;

That license fees for all motor vehicles be based on gross weight and range from $2 for a vehicle of 2,000 pounds gross weight to $40 for a vehicle of 20,000 pounds with additional registration fees of $10 and $20 for commercial vehicles and trailers;

That the grant of renewal of a driver's permit be given to operators of commercial vehicles the applicant submit a physician's certificate of physical fitness;

That no license of a commercial vehicle be renewed or granted until a certificate of physical fitness has been presented;

That municipalities be required to spend a minimum of $3 per capita annually on streets and roads out of non-motor revenue as a "social contribution";

The first of the proposals is in line with Premier Hepburn's policy. But to most persons it must seem that rather than set up nine transport boards, one for each Province, it would be more efficient and less expensive to have one national board.

On the other hand, the Royal Commission offers anything but substantiating evidence that it reputates its anti-Christian principles or alliances.

Anti-diabolical ingenuity does little to encourage acceptance to the theory that it is deserved concerning its own nature or that of the church. We are constrained to conclude, however loath we be to do so, that the invitation of Señor de los Rios and the equivocations and histrionics of Foreign Minister Negrín are but baseful trickery.

In view of Archbishop Curley's attitude there seems no possibility now that the delegation will visit Spain.

On Feb. 13, thinking that the dirty works done by Cummins in the first few months of the year had discredited him, the man himself had him sign a declaration of qualification. How about it, Messrs. Wilson, Long and Entwistle?

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

Vancouver isn't the only city on the Pacific coast that boasts a reformer for mayor. An underground has just been elected in Los Angeles where former City Councilman Fletcher Bowron was elected mayor. One of his first official acts was to return to sports promoters and university coaches twenty sets of season passes to football.

HERE'S A BOLD REFORMER

He is a bold reformer, and university coaches twenty sets of season passes to football. He is a bold reformer, and a face value of $225. Actually they were worth more than that, being for choice seats that money could not buy.

Since then the mayor has agreed that to each city office get 142 sets of season passes to football, city officials 60 sets and other officials 64 sets. The police department get ten sets of season passes for the chief, two sets each for the commissioners, and 20 complimentary sets for each event for the headsman of each. No doubt they need such a large stadium in Los Angeles.

Mayor Bowron has appealed to city and police officials to follow his example saying "Any public employee on a fair salary should pay his own way." Our reformer has signed up.

With all this long list of "kulls" and "Annies Oakleys" the Los Angeles mayor says, "Now I understand why it is I could never get inside the 10-yard line when I purchased a ticket. All the best space was taken up by fans."

Brave but dangerous man in public life, this Mayor Bowron.

Brave but dangerous man in public life, this Mayor Bowron.

Seems I wrote in too great haste the other day in hoping out that an American delegation of leading citizens and others might visit loyalist Spain and see themselves if the persecution stories were true. Some of the invited persons expressed qualified assent, but Archbishop Michael J.

NO TRIP NOW TO SPAIN

Catholic Bishop of Raleigh was invited to lead the delegation, got his archiepiscopal foot down heavily on the movement. Said he:

"I refuse to be duped by alleged religious communists especially when the object of their visit is to denounce the Loyalty Government of Spain. Offers anything but substantiating evidence that it reputates its anti-Christian principles or alliances."

That diabolical ingenuity does little to encourage acceptance to the theory that it is deserved concerning its own nature or that of the church. J. E. Norcross
In his general report that Sir John Simon is optimistic concerning the outlook for 1939.

"There are definite signs for the better," he said, "but no more optimism on my part or a general one in the New Year with proper enthusiasm, but some conclusion can be drawn."

I have reached from the evidence before me, he said, the course of action to be adopted.

"It is a general experience that the first signs of a degree of depression come from across the Atlantic," Sir John continued.

The United States is so vast an area and its operations are on so enormous a scale that this must be so." He said that the situation has been improving in the United States for the last six months. There is almost a return to normality, there are three of business and trade.

"To give one figure, the index of industrial production in the United States in October was 40 per cent above that of September 1937 to 76 last May. It has now risen again to 103. It may be contrasted with 100 in December, 1937, it was no less than 70."

The Chancellor said that the figures of trade figures already furnished indications of the improvement he had forecast.

"The export of iron and steel is a good example of industrial activity," he remarked. "Take pig-iron, for instance. The production of pig-iron for 1937 was 70,800 tons. In December, 1937, it was no less than 40,000."

The Chancellor went on to say that British trade figures already furnished indications of the improvement he had forecast.

Why not?" he asked with a shrug when Janet relayed Leslie's suggestion. "The men we send together are not much of a postume. It's the best way to keep people from thinking we're actually had a row."

"Yesterday, when Lance told Janet he has invested all of his savings in a small business, she asked him, 'What is it, Aunt Mary?'

"I'm not going to leave the Breckenridge, after all!"

"I have been waited on by a special delegation consisting of Mrs. Garrison, the head of the building, and the house manager, and begged to remain," gathered.

"Oh, but please don't tell him that I'm here," said Janet, somewhat defiantly.

"Janet, I understand that being absent from home is a woman's right, it's the right of a woman to move where she wants to go to keep house in."

"I don't believe it," Janet declared.

"Well," Janet said, "so there is a Santa Claus, after all."

"You have been a fat little Santa Claus," Janet said. Her eyes, however, were filled with anxiety. He firmly perspired with anxiety. He reluctantly agreed to stay in.

Dazzling Jacket Dress ... Skating Skirt ... Auning Bell Applique on Bolero

Small girls will be thrilled with the sophistication of this new skating silhouette jacket dress... Just like the grown-ups are wearing! An unusual feature is the "Little Bull" adorns the cunning brief bolero jacket. And the dress itself is simply designed with a wide sailor collar. Is most attractive in navy blue wool or white. The bodice and shoulders... the pointed bodice version is precious. It has a comely collarless neckline and a wide sailor collar with ruffing... is so practical in plain or printed cottons. Navy velvet lining darling for the winter. Sizes for 1½ hours. Add remaining onions and cook 30 minutes more. Add other vegetables on in small pieces and serve gently until tender.

"Thirty Smarty" Never Looks Her True Years

By ALICIA HART

For the first time in your life you have birthday cards from people you used to remember. You catch yourself reminiscing about what you thought of persons you used to know when you were young. Whether you like it or not, you have to admit that nobody will any longer be interested in your shortcomings on the "but-she-was-young" grounds.

In other words, you ought to do about it.

In the first place, you probably look older now. The great majority of people, especially women, don't look some look 20 (or 40 or 50) old. So the best thing you possibly can do is to buy a costume that is more in keeping with the latest category, instead of that of the latter category. Become a "Thirty Smarty," or even a "Twenty-Sixty" in your age, but always smart-looking.

You might very well take care from the fact that most of the important things in life are still in their early thirties are a lot more attractive than they were nearly a decade ago.

Part of this is due to a change in hairstyles, the present one being much more becoming. The short, bobbed hair which hangs straight across the face, and, of course, doesn't have to be imposed and clothes are more becoming than fluster rather than distasteful.

However, the main difference between the two is that the younger and those who look 30 years old seem to be more attractive than the 20-year-olds.

COMMUNITIES ASK GRANT ON RINKS RAISED

Delegation Interviews School Board Seeking Restoration

Request of a delegation from the Federation of Community Leagues that the grants to the community rinks, which formerly ranged from $60 to $90 per house have been cut this season, was restored by the Edmonton Public School board, was heard at a school board regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Headed by ex-Cllr. Elsie East, the delegation pointed out that the small community rinks had been cut on the regular grant and that it would be better put them in a financially embarrassed position.

The volume of service we are rendering in comparison to that of the city is great," said Mr. East. "The deal highest cost we feel that we should have the grants brought up to 100 per cent level." Mr. East said.

$5,740,886 RELIEF COST FOR ALBERTA

71,500 Persons Given Aid for Fiscal Year 1937-38, Cross Reports

During the provincial fiscal year 1937-38, 71,500 persons in Alberta received relief which totalled $5,740,886, according to figures released Wednesday by Dr. H. W. Clegg, Minister of health in charge of relief. Persons included among those receiving relief were 1,000 families of homeless unemployed. The gross cost of relief includes direct relief of agriculture and farm settlement.

Cost of administering this work was $163,629 per year or 2.8 per cent of relief.

In addition to relief included in these figures, programs were carried out and provided wages in kind of relief. Under these programs 21,813 families represented 58,120 persons, earned an average of $86 per family.

Relief families went off relief while they were working but were given further assistance afterward if they became unemployed, who would have been eligible for relief had it been for the work programs, produced 20,260 railway telephones, 1,000 telephones, 2,400 telephone poles; 358,120 linear feet of piping and guard rails and 4,000 linear feet of dimension lumber.

The relief costs for maintenance of trans-Canada facilities which are a share of the provincial relief program, could be virtually nil if these families could be self-sufficient and help themselves. A recent survey shows that the government has at its disposal approximately 5,000 farm homes of which 200 are now available and in good shape. There are 800 more.

"We have no desire that the school board pay in dollars and cents for the services received by the children, but the community organization should be asked to upkeep, the supervision and all of this should be considered when the board takes up this matter," Mr. Jones said.

Other members of the delegation spoke for the school board. King, Hall, King Edward Park, E. J. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hague, Riverview.

Cheque from the Edmonton Health and Strength League to be utilized for the purchase of cod liver oil for underprivileged school children was accepted and given a vote of appreciation.

J. J. Duggan, tax expert retained by the school board, advised Supt. G. A. McKee and Secretary Treasurer Harry Turner be given in preparing statements in support of a budget for the provincial government an increase in the grants to the board. This cooperation will be given.

Frontiersmen To Hold Banquet In Masonic Hall

Officially called for the I.O.O.F. hall the banquet and entertainment of the Masonic Temple will be held on Thursday, January 26, at 8 p.m. has been changed to the Masonic Temple on the same date, according to a statement of announcement made by squadron officers yesterday.

FARMOUE FORD school board executive, who has been on vacation should be a holiday. It is the first time a British Empire representative has been here on vacation and the occasion may never be repeated. Every man, woman and child in the province should be afforded Edmonton people to see him. Many of his former pupils should be given every opportunity for the day to be a holiday; it is a matter of duty.

E. MCLAREN, president of the Edmonton branch, Canadian Legion: That day should undoubtedly be declared a public holiday. The Legion has a right to the minnow and the occasion may never be repeated. Every man, woman and child in the province should be given every opportunity to see their King and Queen.

J. L. B. CLANTON, secretary of the Legion: Our organization wrote a letter to the mayor a short time ago, requesting that June 2 be a holiday. It is the opinion of the Legion that all subjects of Their Majesties be able to see them. We believe that the King of Canada will be able to see a splendid turnout of people to welcome him to our city. The Legion believes that working people can on an hourly basis give their wages for the day so as not to be deprived of part of their day.

GEORGE GREENLEY, school board executive, who did not expect a great effort to give every person in the city an opportunity to witness the forthcoming visit of the King of Canada: The majority for having the day declared a holiday is obvious, since the King of Canada is coming to the Prairies, has been appointed travelling representative of the Motor Car Supply Company in the Peace River area.

WRAPPING THINGS

Wrapping paper, string and a firm will are all that is necessary to prepare a package. After you have wrapped your gift, if you are trying to wrap it and failing, you need a strong will to get the grocer in to do it for you. It's a good wrapping and still not charge for it.

A neat package is a pleasure to open. People who get packages should open them.

Never write anything in newspaper. There is no use in letting your friends know that you clip all the pictures out of the movie addresses out of the paper.

String is all over the place until you want to use it for something. It is well to realize at the start that the string that came around the box when you bought it is not good to hold the package of Indian clubs together very well.

Minute Make-Ups

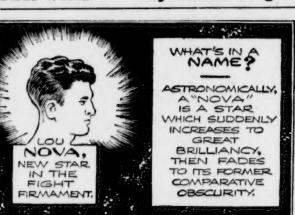

In cold, stormy weather it's extra hard to keep powder on your nose. On account of the cold, the powder tends more to blotting than usual. Try using liquid powder on your nose. That stays on longer. Or use a waterproof foundation cream and apply with powder over it more often.

Looking Them Over

- Fan Protests
- Basic Facts
- Grid Gossip

Here's a fair and impressive presentation of the present Edmonton hockey situation. The writer is A. R. Mare of Edmonton. After describing his surprise at the way he found Calgarians supporting the Stampeders last Saturday, up front the Stampeders are at the bottom of the league, we saw the situation tip up like this:

"The Stampeders are a better hockey team than Edmonton, which for years was a better hockey city than Calgary. It is from a support standpoint, I now in the position where it even rests against its own team and, worse than that, will not turn out to support it."

"The least we could do here is to get out and support our team like they do in Calgary, and it would not be long before we would find that support had resulted in helping our team overcome a lot of poor hockey they have been displaying lately."

"We should be ashamed to think that Edmonton, which, in the past was a better sporting city than Calgary, is now in the position where it cannot do very much bragging about its sports supporters."

These Points Should Be Remembered

IN fairness to the Edmonton Sport Bouquets—a group of generous business men and professional men who only object to us giving this better sport, certain facts about the present senior hockey situation here require repeating.

At the very outset, it was clearly explained that Edmonton could not hope to have an Allan Cup team this season since it was late in the fall before the old setup could be cleared away and a new one organized and financed to keep Edmonton in the senior league.

We would have had a senior hockey here this winter if this reorganization had not gone through. The only achievement promised by the Bouquets for the first season was to lay the ground-work for future years. That already has been well done.

The next major point is that Edmonton was not in a position to obtain the type of players that the fans are demanding. The organization was completed too late in the season. No one can be blamed for that. The next point is that players cannot be imported to the Order of Regulators if you badly want them.

The Bouquets could admit they may have made some mistakes and learned valuable lessons. They are apologetic to the fans here to give the Eskimos support for the balance of the season so that Edmonton may have a real club next year. If this support is not given the financial loss will be so heavy that it will be impossible to have any senior team here next season. That is no secret—it is merely a frank statement of fact. In this case, however, the Bouquets were right. The Eskimos are now Allan Cup-bound and strong. Orla's was well established; as was Drumheller, Coleman and Lethbridge. Calgary also seems a position to enter into contracts with players, some months before the season starts.

It's a Screwey League

WITH the exception of the 1927-28 season, the Western Hockey League has been a screwy league. It is a fact that the game has been a screwy league for many years. Any executive of the Western Hockey League can tell you any day, any time, that he is perplexed by the fact that Drumheller beat the Eskos 9-2 here a week ago and then lost to Orla 5-3 the other night.

One of the things that is bugging Hockey here is the result of rumors of one kind and another about the way certain players have been treated. For good reasons, these rumors cannot be gone into here. However, just to add to the screwiness of the executive of the Brewster Cup, Cleve Long, the New McPhee, Gen. Coddell, Dick Duggan and Bob Bradstock, to name a few. They'll soon prove to you that the situation is entirely different than many are representing it as being. Remember this is not prologue yet that we are playing.

Another reason for the screwiness of the Western Hockey League is the fact that the Eskimos are the only team that has any real chance to make it big. The other teams are not. They may possibly need to improve their methods, but the Eskimos are not being used.

Gridiron Gossip

BEST in the States while his injured elbow healed, Doug claims it is already well enough to assure him playing again soon. Big Doug, Gelbke and Vince Vataha are elsewhere and set for another season. Little Howell is working here in a full-time job.

Eddie O'Brien, who won all-conference rating, has undergone an operation here for an injury received in a game last fall. He came through fine and will be out of hospital in a day or two.

Fritz has a number of player prospects lined up for positions on the team and, naturally, is not making public any details on them. Winnipeg figures on only one U.S. immerges this season.

Cecilia College Retains Ice Crown Before Great Crowd

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Cecilia College of Great Britain last night held its annual ice skating competition before a sell-out crowd of 8,000 at the Empire Auditorium. Hundreds were turned away.

Don Meade Boots Them Home Again

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Don Meade blitzed his remarkable comeback campaign with the best of many good days at Madison Square Garden Tuesday when he landed four consecutive wins to bring his total to 26, an average of two a day in the first 12 days of the meet.

With off the cuff almost three years ago, Meade is riding better than ever in the opinion of veteran turf observers.

Chuck Nickason Retires From Ring

Nickason, Vancouver light-heavyweight boxer, Thursday announced he was retiring from the ring after 10 years of professional boxing with Ted Moore, who has him under a five-year contract.

Promoters attempted to entice Nickason back into the ring recently, but he refused.

Formerly known as "The Canadian" he is now known as "The Iron Man."

He has fought 100 bouts, 80 of which were won, and has a record of 80-16-4.

Miss Nickason is the son of Chuck and Sam Ferguson.

Nickason and his opponent, M. J. O'Brien and Doctor Stirling, both of whom are from Boston, Mass., were the sixth straight win for the Bostonian.

Ace Professional Golfers Panning Match Play System

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Bumfords of an interesting revolution within the ranks of the Professional Golf Association have headed the country's amateur golfers in choosing dusters in the 1966-67 tournament.

The dissident group, which is unorthodox but again has a strong following, has organized a match play, or man to man competition, which is to be held in San Francisco on Feb. 10.

It is an unusual but good idea.

The dissident group has a strong following, especially in 1916.

BOSTON, AMERICANS TRIUMPH IN N.H.L. GAMES

Joe Louis Looks Too Big and Fast For John Henry in Title Fight Tonight

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Installed as a prohibitive favorite, at odds as high as 1 to 10, Joe Louis puts his world heavyweight boxing championship on the line for the fifth time tonight against John Henry Lewis in Madison Square Garden.

LEWIS (The Challenger) has had the same record—10 wins, 8 losses, 1 draw, 10 knockouts, 10 times he has gone into the ring at about 185 lbs. Lewis has made advantage of 15 lbs more pounds. Trained to fit as fine a condition as possible, Lewis has won 10 bouts, 8 by knock-out, 2 by decision, 1 by draw, 1 by points.

JOE LOUIS

Schmeling to defeat last summer—the champion will stage about 200 more rounds before he recently abdicated the light-heavyweight throne figures to tip the beam at 185 or less.

SEVEN UP.

Veteran boxing observers, their minds made up that Lewis is past his prime and cannot hope to cope with the younger man, have since Dempsey, asked each other today only what round? generally, the opinion was for a knock-out.

JUST WHISTLING.

There had been some faint hope John Henry's boxing skill and training experience he had gained in the ring would be enough to last the distance against the force of Joe's dynamism. But those who have watched both fighters in their respective efforts to recruit their new feel that would be whistling in the dark.

COAL BRANCH JUNIORS GET ORCHIDS NOW

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin CADOMIN, Jan. 25.—Supporting the Coal Branch on the orchids has been taken over by the fiery junior in the coal branch team. The applause and orchids, once the senior 10-pins, were given to the Juniors on the jacks and last night before an increased crowd Uncle Mathew, Coal Branch, led the Juniors to a 14-14 triumph against Mountain Park.

The first frame opened an easy clip the pace gradually opening up. Jack Chantey slammed home Joy's rebound for the Red Devils, while the Juniors had the visitors on a natty executed piece of stickwork, tied it up unassisted by the given away. The Juniors had high stick-work and the Park really put on the pressure. Jack McLeod of Cadomin, who had been sent packing away with Chambers, took a perfect pass to score, while Chambers a few frames later had a breakaway, put the locals two up. During the heavy power play around the Cadomin net Cheesie to Massie, and the Juniors a switch that had goals Shearer, Chantey, made it 3-2 to end the period.

ROUT STARTED.

Both of the Park, scored on a brilliant shot to tie the score in the third frame. Ristow grabbed a look near the Park blue line and a shot from the Park corner easier. Chantey and Joy combined to make it 5-3 for Cadomin. Hartman to make the Park's last goal.

From then on the Park and a smashing win for the Cadomin kids. Dombrowski scored three in the fourth frame, while Chantey, Cheesie and Joy got two apiece. Kester, 278; M. Hughes, 465; Government Mixed: Cochran, 272-100.

ALLEN SCORES C.C.F. PLANS IN DISCUSSION

Party Platform Assailed in Debate With Irvine Tuesday Night

An political creed based on the doctrine of the class war is responsible for the present and future difficulties of Alberta, Hugh Allen, former C.C.F. member and mines undersecretary, told a capacity audience yesterday night in a debate on the provincial C.C.F. platform at the Masonic Temple here. The debate was held in the Masonic Temple because of a capacity audience.

Mr. Allen said that the C.C.F. pledged to public ownership of natural resources and public welfare services, and that the new day of criticism of this policy has come.

Announcement of a bonus, spending money, and a loan from the Social Credit, to which supporters of the latter party had been invited was made by Captain Clifford L. Cross, president of the executive council of C.C.F. clubs.

Mr. Allen submitted that the provincial C.C.F. platform did not meet the needs of the people.

Referring to a statement by an Alberta that the C.C.F. bonus of $10,000,000 had been paid into Farmer's Fund, Mr. Allen said that the C.C.F. should pay more attention to such facts.

It is to be a definite fact that the C.C.F. has been getting up Turner Valley, supported by many millions of dollars the returns have been obtained, he declared.

"Can you name any provincial government that could have undertaken to do what the C.C.F. has done in Turner Valley? It would have been turned out of office if the majority newspapers began to see it as a definite fact that the development of our resources than was getting back."

COMPANIES EFFICIENT

And do not believe that the government does not know what it is doing in this work. These private companies, with their millions of dollars, are doing a better job and that they get the best technical advice that could be provided.

The provincial government gets the best advice from its experts in Turner Valley now, and is not having any appreciable investment in it. Mr. Allen said that the charge of exploitation of natural resources.

The C.C.F. took about three high incomes and increasing taxes. But there were very few really rich people. Alberta, Mr. Allen suggested that that place in poor provinces, should be analyzed very carefully.

PUBLIC REACTION

"All you are going to experience people's property," Mr. Allen warned, "do not forget the unfavorable press reaction that will immediately result."

"Where will you get the money to carry out your elaborate social program? You can't afford to pay for such action," he asked.

"I cannot see much hope for this province, in any political sense, based on the doctrine of the class war," Mr. Allen responded.

Alberta has had enough of self-seeking politicians who have not done much to fulfill their promises.

ECONOMIC NEEDS MET

Mr. Irvine, in opening his speech, declared that the program of his party met the economic needs of Alberta.

It is not enough to criticize the planks in the C.C.F. platform. You must do something to be done. Things are bad in Alberta. The business has followed the price of coal since 1931. It is not good enough to criticize, he advised.

Among the primary tasks before him, Mr. Irvine said, is to see that the taking over by public control of natural resources or public utility services does not result in contact or destructive competition before the first to feel the pressure of the C.C.F. He must tackle the problem of debt. Praying off of debts was a common method of the C.C.F. and the end of our own bankruptcy, he said.

Alberta would be worsted in one of three ways—by general strike, public uprising against the intolerable burdens, or by a fair settlement of the economic situation. It was the latter method the C.C.F. stood pledged to pursue.

HAVOC WROUGHT

A small platform of the C.C.F. was presented by Mr. Irvine. The C.C.F. platform should not be enforced by force, he said, but by moral suasion and peaceful standards of living. First, the people should be those for whom the debt was payable for those owing the debt.

Habits had been brought in some measure to meet the emergency, the slump in price of primary goods, and to try to enforce with the utmost severity the rules of the game. In totally different circumstances, was not simply a negation of morality but a violation of good economics, Mr. Irvine concluded.

PROGRAM NOW PREPARED ON GAME PARLEY

Protective Association
Holds Annual Convention Here Saturday

Program for the annual convention of the Alberta Fish and Game Protective Association to be held in the Corona hotel here Saturday and which is expected to bring nearly 50 delegates from all parts of the province to Edmonton, has been completed, George M. Speer, director of fisheries, said Wednesday.

Guest speakers at the sessions of the convention will be W. J. Bell, president of the Alberta Parks Association, W. C. Fisher, K.C., vice-president of the National Parks Association; D. R. McLean, school dentist and Dr. R. A. Rooney, secretary of the Edmonton Dental Association, to speak to the board as the best way to handle these.

Brought up at a meeting of the board two weeks ago by Dr. Gordon E. Swallow, senior medical officer, the question of a waiting list of 726 cases needing dental treatment with no dental insurance, was discussed at that time and Dr. H. R. McLean, school dentist and Dr. R. A. Rooney, secretary of the Edmonton Dental Association, recommended to speak to the board Tuesday.

ferred to our general account," said Harry Turner, secretary, explaining the board's decision.

"The board has been in touch with Dr. E. B. Davies, minister of Agriculture, and B. W. Cartwright, director of fisheries, and we are awaiting a statement from the minister," he said.

Addressing a statement by an

Alberta that the C.C.F. bonus of $10,000,000 had been paid into Farmer's Fund, Mr. Turner said:

"We have no way to represent the individual who does not wish to have his name mentioned in his bond," Dr. Morrison returned.

TOOK SAME STAND

"The city took the same stand at first as we did, but has found it advisable to change its position, as the act has been passed and now a law of the province, we are compelled to pay interest on the trust fund," Trustee Smith said. "It is a matter of policy entirely outside educational interest, and I question the right of the government to interfere in this government, there are plenty of electors who do, and we represent those as well as those who do not," the chairman stated.

"I have no way to represent the individual who does not wish to have his name mentioned in his bond," Dr. Morrison returned.

OPEN IN JULY

"The board has decided to open July 1st," said Mr. Turner. "We are working out the details of the new system of payment of interest on the trust fund," he said.

In answer to Dr. Morrison's question, Mr. Davies said:

"The board was Mr. Turner's suggestion. The government's relief policy for transients families until such time as the economy has become self-sufficient again."

SELF-SUPPORTING

"We feel that many families, if given the chance, would be able to support themselves," Mr. Davies said.

"No we don't for it is not actually our money," Mr. Turner answered.

"I am not suggesting that the government should not help us, but we are asking for a little more time to work out the details of the new system of payment of interest from November rather than July," he said.

"I am not suggesting that the government should not help us, but we are asking for a little more time to work out the details of the new system of payment of interest from November rather than July," he said.

Dr. McLean explained that the government had been asked to consider the proposal, and have it referred to the board's committee of inquiry.

Dr. Cross said that the government had been asked to consider the proposal, and have it referred to the board's committee of inquiry.
